THE MAGNIFICENT OCEAN GREYHOUND.

What She Has Done in Record Breaking Description of the Vessel-Specimen Menu.

The Pacific Mail Steamship China steamed into the harbor this morning at 6 o'clock, and an hour later was snug alongside the company's dock.

A salvo of artillery, consisting of twenty-one guns, thundered out a welwas fired through orders of the Government, by Lieutentant Coyne and a detachment of regulars from Company E, National Guard.

The old veteran, Captain Sheppard, acted as pilot for the China, as he did and Liliuokalani, and I'll run it again, for the other big steamship, Oceanic. The vessel drew twenty-three and one phrase. He has repeated this amusing half feet and never even stirred up the sand at the bottom of the harbor, although there was only half a tide.

The China is by far the most magnificent steamship on the Pacific Ocean, and was built in Glasgow in 1889 by the Fairfield Shipbuilding beam 48 feet and depth 40 feet. Her carries a crew of 167 men, and in the engine department besides the chief engineer, there are six assistant engineers and sixty-one firemen, oilers and water tenders. The engines have a sixfoot stroke, with dimensions as follows: High pressure 40 in diameter, intermediate 66 in diameter, low pressure 106 in, diameter. She has complete refrigerating, and ice, and electrical plants, and has accomodations for 132 her bunkers, and the daily consumption at speed of 15 1/2 knots is 90 tons.

tween Yokohama and San Francisco and Honolulu and San Francisco. The former trip she has made in 12 days, 11 hours and 30 minutes, and the latter in 5 days, 17 hours and 30 minutes, this beating all records. She has also a record of 9 days, 7 hours and pointed. fifteen minutes between Honolulu and Yokohama.

The passengers on this palatial vessel are looked after by the most experienced steward on the Pacific-Steward Goodchild-formerly of the old Shanghai Steam Navigation Company With a French chmf de cuisine and and his assistants and with twenty waiters he sets on a table such a dinner as this one :

DINNER S. S. CHINA. Menu.SOUP : Terrapin. FISH: Boiled Salt Cod and Butter Sauce. BOILED: Corned Pork and Cabbage, Mutton and Caper Sauce.

The elegant cabins are all arranged in the latest approved fashion, and evening at five. upholstered in crimson plush. The saloon and ante-rooms are filled with luxurious divans and marvels of easy chairs. The finishing of the entire interior of the vessel is of the highest order of the cabinetmaker's art, and a trip on the China makes one long only —not for the other shore—but for & Davis' Wrought Steel Ranges,—unquestion—another just like it. Punkahs which ably the best for all purposes—Douglas Pumps I hope to make a trip there next year, hiente of an ocean voyage are a feature Brooms, Brushes, Ball Wicking, etc., etc. 1-w. of this beautiful vessel.

The China has been the object of hundreds of sight-seers all day as she lay at the dock, and at five o'clock this evening, when she departs, there will be many to wish her a hearty aloha and a quick return.

The officers of the China are all Americans, and consist of the following: Captain, W. B. Seabury; chief officer, W. Saunders; chief engineer, Geo. H. Ferguson; purser, Wm. M. Minton; Surgeon, A. Nelson Beach M. D.
